OBITUARY

On December 25, 1910, in the State of Louisiana, in Baton Rouge Parish, a darling baby girl was born to Ulyesses and Nettie Armwood, whom they named Uless, but chose to call her "Sweet Cake".

She was reared and educated in the public schools in Louisiana. She was saved and filled with the Holy Ghost at an early age at Myrtle Street Church of God in Christ in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, and grew spiritually and served faithfully under the pastorage of the late Elder James Edwards. She served faithfully at Richardson Chapel in Scotlandville, Louisiana, under the pastorage of Elder W. K. Gordon, now Bishop of Eastern Louisiana.

July 12, 1931, she was united in holy matrimony to Elder Dewey Arshell Morgan, to this union were borne twelve sibblings, five son, seven daughters. Four (4) preceded her in death, Dewey, Peter, Elizabeth, and Martha. September, 1949, the family sojourned to Los Angeles, California upon an invitation from the late Bishop S. M. Crouch, Sr. after he heard Elder Morgan preach in Memphis.

Mother Morgan to some, Grand Ma, to others, were the names she was affectionately called by all who knew her. She was an ardent worker for the Lord. Mother Morgan's religious work history, are as follows: President of the Ministers' Wives Council of Progressive District, President of Sewing Circle, Licensed Evangelist Missionary Teacher of Adult Class for Sunday School and Bible Band, a faithful member of the State Ministers' Wives Council, So. California Juris #1, also a member of the Mothers' Board.

Mother Morgan loved nothing better than church except more church, for when her husband was on the Evangelist field or she was physically unable to attend church, she would gather who so ever would come and conduct services in her porch and in her living room. In her neighborhood, she was loved and respected by young and the old. She was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother, her children can truly call her blessed.

On Wednesday, August 14, 1985, she made her transition from this earthly tabernacle to be with her Lord. Leaving to cherish many precious and treasured memories: a devoted husband of 54 years, Elder Dewey A. Morgan; three sons, Nathaniel, James and John Morgan, all of Los Angeles; five daughters, Mary Morgan, Tabitha Gaines, Ruth McWilliams, Naomi Bashful, Sarah Hackett; two sons-in-law, Dr. Paul Hackett, Mr. Ronald Bashful; one daughter-in-law, Patrina Morgan, all of Los Angeles; one niece/daughters, Mrs. Ruth Jefferson of Dorchester, Mass.; four sisters, Nettie Walters, Alena Stroman of Connecticut; Ruth Daniels, Doris Esaw of Inglewood, Calif.; two brothers, Willie and Emerson Armwood of Los Angeles, Calif.; 27 grandchildren, 18 great grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.
